We hope everyone is handling this up and down weather okay.

As we enter the nuddle of winter and with weather all over the place, here are some reminders to keep everyone warm and safe.

If you are traveling outside with family or on an activity, dress for the weather. Coats, hats and mitts all help keep you warm and reduce the risk of frostbite.

If you are taking your loved one out, please remember to sign out and let the nurses know if you will be gone an extended period of time. We may have some important medications we want to make sure you take with you.

If you notice the parking lot is icy, please report it to the nursing station. We have a service that is taking care of the snow and ice and we can contact them 24 hours a day.

NURSING DEPARTMENT

There are many influenza outbreaks across the city and up until now we have been very lucky!

REMEMBER PLEASE:

If you are unwell with the flu or a cold, please refrain from visiting. Hand washing remains the best way to help stay healthy and when visiting there are several handwash stations throughout the building.

Thank you, Melanie

ENVIRONMENTAL DEPARTMENT

Hello and Welcome to Winter!

I hope the New Year is going well for all of you all! It's getting to be a lot colder out and the weather is not predictable. Please be careful when you go outside, we have a great guy taking care of our parking lot this season and it's working out well.

Note, any concerns for maintenance please let a staff member know so they can log it into the book.

Also, any new clothing for LTC side please give to the RN so they can follow the procedure for labelling.

Enjoy the rest of the lovely weather!! ☺

Any maintenance concerns please contact me at Ext. 277.

Regards, Glenna
